Sharing the Same Moon Art Exhibition

The first phase of the exhibition was held at 46 Edward St, Summer Hill, in the afternoon on the 19th at AFAFL Building, a cultural, educational and arts centre. The exhibition will continue to host various event such as stages of art exhibitions, academic lectures and other activities organized by the Australian Fujian Association. On the day of the exhibition, nearly 200 guests were welcomed. The theme of the exhibition was sharing and co-operation. We had an exhibition of artworks by artists from different backgrounds. The artists' creations showcased their great artistic abilities and enriched our emotions and minds by sharing with us their different cultural backgrounds and their ability to think creatively and live their visions. The exhibition of paintings from a thousand miles is an opportunity for artists from multiple backgrounds to come together to showcase co-operation, sharing and to demonstrate the desire for a harmonious and happy life.

The main guest included Willoughby city council Gail Giles-Gidney, Deputy Mayor of Sydney Robert Kok, Helen Wai-Har Sham-Ho OAM, Dr. Eman Lee OAM， Australia-China Institute of Arts and Culture at the University of Western Sydney Professor Han Jing， Li Weiguo on behalf of the President of
